Notes.—The Central Office of the Act of November 1875, which provided that all outbreaks of Pox and Scab, &c., should be reported to the authorities charged with, and to the nearest veterinary or police station, was, on the 24th of November 1876, amended so that outbreaks requiring vaccination of the disease so reported, were not reported until the 15th of July 1876. Hence the number of these diseases have not been reported to be affected with the disease during the year 1876.

Forney (Inspector, Health Office),
20 November 1876.

Health Inspector, 20th Nov.
